gmanzanaresjule@cozen.com | 312-474-7746

Gabby represents a diverse range of clients before the Illinois Governor's Office, state agencies, and both chambers of the General Assembly to meet their legislative and regulatory objectives. Prior to joining Public Strategies, Gabby worked in both the public and private sector, most recently as a legislative analyst for an early childhood education agency, where she partnered with other advocates and state agencies to improve access and the quality of early childhood education. Previously, Gabby worked as a staffer for the Illinois House Speaker in the Office of Research and Appropriations Unit, where she analyzed bills and state agency budgets, and staffed committees.

Gabby earned her Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and Business Administration from Illinois Wesleyan University.
