

Cozen O'Connor Supports Urban Design Forum's Global Exchange as Founding Member of its Global Circle

Friday, July 12, 2024

Cozen O'Connor has become a founding member of Urban Design Forum's (UDF) Global Circle in support of UDF's Global Exchange program, which emboldens a new generation of leaders to uncover innovative ideas globally through a 10-month fellowship. The Global Circle is a distinguished group of senior civic, industry, and philanthropic leaders who gather for events with esteemed speakers, travel together to peer cities, and connect New York's decision-makers with their counterparts around the world. Cozen O'Connor is the only law firm that is a member of the Global Circle. Vivien Krieger, co-chair of Cozen O'Connor's Zoning, Land Use & Development Practice, serves as the firm's representative. Vivien is also a fellow of UDF.
