

Aaron Holt Appointed Co-Chair of the ABA's Leadership Development Program Committee

Wednesday, November 6, 2024

Aaron Holt, a member of Cozen O'Connor's Labor & Employment Department, has been appointed to be the Employer Co-Chair for the American Bar Association's (ABA) Leadership Development Program Committee. The Leadership Development Program Committee provides leadership training and development to a select group of labor and employment law practitioners from the ABA representing all constituencies of the section. The term of the appointment will run through August 31, 2025.

About the ABA

The ABA was founded in 1878 and is a membership organization committed to its mission of advancing the rule of law across the United States and beyond by providing practical resources for legal professionals, law school accreditation, model ethics codes, and more.

About Cozen O'Connor

Established in 1970, Cozen O'Connor has more than 925 attorneys who help clients manage risk and make better business decisions. The firm counsels clients on their most sophisticated legal matters in all areas of the law, including litigation, corporate, and regulatory law. Representing a broad array of leading global corporations and middle market companies, Cozen O'Connor services its clients' needs through 33 offices across two continents.

Related Practice Areas

- Labor & Employment