

Vivien Krieger Selected to Serve on ULI New York's 2023 Awards for Excellence in Development Committee

Tuesday, June 6, 2023

NEW YORK, June 6, 2023 — Vivien Krieger has been selected to serve on Urban Land Institute (ULI) New York's 2023 Awards for Excellence in Development Committee. The Awards for Excellence in Development recognizes notable development projects in the private, public, and nonprofit sectors of New York. The awards committee is composed of leading real estate professionals and is responsible for nominating awards finalists and selecting winning projects for the Excellence Gala dinner.

Vivien is co-chair of the Zoning, Land Use, & Development Practice. She focuses her practice on real estate law, representing developers, lenders, owners, purchasers, and nonprofits in New York City land use and zoning matters.

About the 2023 Awards for Excellence in Development

ULI New York's Awards for Excellence in Development honors exceptional development projects in the private, public, and nonprofit sectors across the state. The awards committee is responsible for nominating the finalists. After extensive research on projects, the winners are revealed and celebrated at the annual gala dinner.
