

Hugh Marbury Celebrates 15 Years at the American Law Institute

Monday, March 11, 2024

WASHINGTON, D.C., March 11, 2024 — Hugh Marbury is celebrating his 15th year since being elected to the American Law Institute. Hugh is an active member of the American Law Institute and is currently working on three Restatements of the Law: Copyright; Torts: Defamation and Privacy; and Corporate Governance.

Hugh focuses his practice on business and intellectual property litigation. His business litigation practice focuses on complex financial transactions and commercial disputes across multiple sectors, with extensive experience in Delaware Chancery Court. His intellectual property litigation practice includes patent, trademark, copyright, and trade secret litigation. Hugh has nearly three decades of experience utilizing his considerable knowledge to counsel clients in a wide variety of industries on critical challenges facing their businesses. He has represented a variety of clients, from technology companies and professional sports franchises to investor groups and high net worth individuals, in disputes valued at more than $4 billion. He has tried cases in federal court and has extensive arbitration and mediation experience. Hugh also obtained a secret clearance with the United States government as a result of some of his engagements.

The American Law Institute is the leading independent organization in the United States producing scholarly work to clarify, modernize, and otherwise improve the law. ALI drafts, discusses, revises, and publishes Restatements of the Law, Model Codes, and Principles of Law that are enormously influential in the courts and legislatures, as well as in legal scholarship and education. By participating in the Institute's work, its distinguished members have the opportunity to influence the development of the law in both existing and emerging areas, to work with other eminent lawyers, judges, and academics, to give back to a profession to which they are deeply dedicated, and to contribute to the public good.
