

Richmond

Cozen O'Connor's Richmond office opened in January 2018. Our Richmond-based attorneys are members of the firm's State Attorneys General (AG) Practice and offer executive agency and legislative branch strategies and services for companies operating in Virginia. Our Virginia state government and legislative team is unique in that it combines its deep experience advocating for clients in the state AG arena with its experience representing clients on issues of concern to state legislatures and in Virginia specifically.
