Andrew's extensive experience in corporate finance and securities law positions him as a strategic advisor for clients seeking to navigate complex cross-border transactions. With a deep understanding of Canadian and United States securities regulations, he provides comprehensive guidance on matters ranging from initial public offerings, reverse takeovers, and stock exchange listings to private company transactions, acquisitions, and exit strategies.

Andrew leverages his background in corporate law, securities, and taxation to provide sound advice and support, while his entrepreneurial spirit and experience as a former business owner allow him to understand his client's needs and provide tailored solutions.

Most recently, Andrew was a partner in the capital markets, securities, mergers and acquisitions practice as well as the U.S. capital markets practice of one of Western Canada's leading law firms.

Andrew earned his B.A. from the University of British Columbia, his LL.B. with distinction and as winner of the Silver Medal in Law, from the University of Alberta, and his LL.M. from the University of Cambridge.
