

Cozen O'Connor Announces Changes to Firm Management

Tuesday, February 16, 2021

PHILADELPHIA, February 16, 2021 — Cozen O'Connor is pleased to announce the following changes in firm leadership positions for the 2021 year.

Jeremy Glenn, resident in the firm's Chicago office, has been appointed to a two-year term as one of two office managing partner representatives to the firm's Management Committee. Susan Eisenberg, resident in the firm's Miami office, will continue for a second year on the committee.

David Shimkin, of the firm's Los Angeles office, has been appointed as chair of the Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion Committee. David previously chaired the firm's internal Hispanic Attorney Resources Group.

Maureen Holland and Calli Padilla, who both reside in the firm's Philadelphia office, have been reappointed as co hiring partners.

Joseph Tate, resident in the firm's Philadelphia office, has been appointed chair of the firm's Electronic Discovery & Practice Advisory Services (ePas) practice.

Alycen Moss has been appointed as vice-chair office managing partner for the firm's Atlanta office.

Laura Dowgin and Alphonso Collins have been appointed as co-vice chair office managing partners for the firm's New York office. Geoffrey Ferrer and Mike Schmidt will continue as co-office managing partners of the firm's New York flagship office at 3WTC, which marks the consolidation of the firm's two offices formerly located in Downtown and Midtown New York.

Peter Lynch has been appointed as office managing partner, and Kristina Cherevas has been appointed as vice-chair office managing partner for the firm's San Diego office.

Duane Montgomery has been appointed as office managing partner for the firm's Santa Monica office.

Kyle Farnam has been appointed as vice-chair office managing partner for the firm's Seattle office.

J.D. Dickenson has been appointed as office managing partner for the firm's West Palm Beach office.