

Thomas G. Wilkinson, Jr. Named Co-Chair of Pennsylvania Bar Association Task Force

Wednesday, November 3, 2010

Thomas G. Wilkinson, Jr., a member in the firm's Philadelphia office, was appointed to the Pennsylvania Bar Association's task force on the Interbranch Commission on Juvenile Justice Report. Gretchen A. Mundorff, PBA president, created the task force to study the recommendations made by the Interbranch Commission. The Interbranch Commission on Juvenile Justice was created to investigate the causes of corruption in the Luzerne County juvenile court and give recommendations on how to improve the system.
