

About

Founded in 1970, Cozen O'Connor has more than 925 attorneys practicing internationally in 32 cities across North America and Europe. We are a full-service firm with award-winning practices in litigation, business law, and government relations, and our attorneys have experience operating in all sectors of the economy. Our diverse client list includes global Fortune 500 companies, middle-market firms poised for growth, ambitious startups, and high-profile individuals.

In an industry built on talk, Cozen O'Connor has made its name by doing. As one of North America's fastest-growing law firms, we continue to build our firm one case, one victory at a time. Our attorneys have impeccable academic credentials and are able to combine intellectual rigor with practicality and efficiency. We provide sophisticated, business-minded advice aimed at one simple goal: getting the right result for our clients. Ranked among the top 100 law firms in America, our commitment to excellence has earned us recognition from many legal and business organizations, including Chambers & Partners, The American Lawyer, The Legal 500, and Best Lawyers. No matter how complex, contentious, or critical the undertaking, we persevere until the job is done.

What you've built, we can defend. What you envision, we can help construct.

Business Law. The firm serves as a trusted adviser and lead dealmaker on behalf of an impressive roster of corporate clients. Our attorneys are recognized as among North America's most practical and creative corporate practitioners. Rarely is the path from point A to point B a straight line, so our role is to find alternatives, devise workable strategies, and keep projects moving forward to completion. Cozen O'Connor's business attorneys help clients achieve their goals with respect to mergers and acquisitions, venture capital, intellectual property, real estate, utility & energy, environment, securities, tax, transportation & trade, employee benefits and executive Litigation. Cozen O'Connor's historical roots are in litigation, and we are widely known as one of the top trial firms in North America. Our long track record of aggressive and innovative advocacy gives us an edge both in court and in negotiations. We have experience resolving many types of disputes, including in the areas of complex commercial litigation, class actions, intellectual property, labor & employment, securities, antitrust, product liability, aviation, construction, environment, insurance claims & litigation, and criminal defense and government investigations.

Government Relations. Cozen O'Connor's strength in government relations comes from our deep legal and political experience combined with business strategy to deliver results for our clients. Our State AG practice group was one of the first firms to establish a team dedicated to representing clients in AG investigations and litigation, and counseling clients on state AG matters. Our attorneys work at the cutting edge of issues, including antitrust, cybersecurity, data privacy, consumer protection, the environment, and labor laws. Complementing our legal practices, our bipartisan government relations firm, Cozen O'Connor Public Strategies, is based in Washington, D.C., with offices throughout the United States. The group serves clients on the federal, state, and local levels and before both the executive and legislative branches of government. Public Strategies professionals have held high-level political positions in Republican and Democratic administrations; worked for members of Congress and congressional and state committees; and run federal, state, and local political campaigns. The team helps ensure that clients are seen and heard by key decision-makers and provides critical crisis management and public relations counsel.
