Dan's practice involves a wide range of business litigation and complex commercial litigation matters in federal and state court, including breach of contract disputes, trade secret misappropriation, partnership disputes, health care litigation, fraud, insurance, product liability, and other complex torts and business disputes.

Dan has experience in all phases of pretrial practice, including drafting pleadings and discovery requests, taking and defending depositions, motions in limine, Frye motions, and dispositive motions and responses. He also has trial experience before the American Arbitration Association.

Prior to joining the firm, Dan served as a law clerk in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey where he worked for the Honorable Michael A. Shipp and the Honorable Brian R. Martinotti.

Dan received his J.D. from Villanova University School of Law, where he was a Dean's Merit Scholar and served as a teaching assistant for civil procedure courses. While in law school he was a judicial intern for the Honorable Ashely M. Chan, United States Bankruptcy Judge for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. He received a Bachelor's of Science in economics and a Bachelor's of Science in finance, magna cum laude, from West Chester University of Pennsylvania.
