

Tips for Expediting the Supply Chain Backlog

Tuesday, May 25, 2021

Heather Marx was featured in an article published by EPSNews discussing how there are certain measures businesses can take to streamline the processing of shipments by U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP). Heather emphasized the importance of due diligence and stated, “You really have to understand who you are doing business with.” “You see tier-1 suppliers that otherwise would be nixed from the U.S. shipping through other countries or next-tier partners. Enforcement is working to keep pace with trans-shipment issues. Some companies manipulate the system, so businesses have to take a detailed look to see who they are dealing with both for their own knowledge and in case enforcement becomes an issue.”
