

Cozen O'Connor CEO & Managing Partner Accept The #ALSIceBucketChallenge

Wednesday, August 20, 2014

Moved by the viral sensation the ALS Ice Bucket Challenge, Michael Heller and Vince McGuinness have challenged all Cozen O'Connor employees to the ALS Ice Bucket Challenge. Employees at all of Cozen O'Connor's 23 offices have 24 hours to either donate to ALS (www.alsa.org) or dump a bucket of water on their head (or both). For each employee who accepts the challenge, Michael and Vince will donate $5 to ALS and the firm's charitable organization will match their donations. Our goal is $20,000.
