

Thomas Wilkinson Elected to Serve a Three-Year Term on the ABA Board of Governors

Friday, September 17, 2021

PHILADELPHIA, September 17, 2021 — Cozen O'Connor is pleased to announce that Thomas G. Wilkinson, member of the firm's Commercial Litigation Department, has been elected to serve a three-year term on the American Bar Association Board of Governors representing Pennsylvania and New Jersey. His board service began at the recent ABA Annual Meeting in Chicago. He is a member of the board's Profession, Public Service and Diversity Committee, and will serve as a liaison to other committees, including the Standing Committee on Professionalism. Wilkinson previously served as the Pennsylvania State Delegate to the ABA House of Delegates, its policymaking body.

Wilkinson concentrates his practice in the areas of business litigation, business torts, appellate, complex insurance coverage, and professional responsibility matters. He also has substantial experience in advising lawyers and law firms on risk management and professional liability issues. He is a member of the firm's Legal Profession Services Practice Group. He has been retained and accepted as an expert witness in attorney professional liability and responsibility cases in state and federal courts. He is a past president of the Pennsylvania Bar Association and a past president of the Pennsylvania Bar Institute.
