Nathan represents clients in a wide range of complex commercial litigation matters, including contract disputes, corporate governance litigation, antitrust litigation, premises liability, and other complex torts and business disputes. His pro bono practice has included voting rights litigation.

Nathan also serves as the associate representative to the firm's political action committee.

Prior to joining the firm, he served as a law clerk to the Honorable David R. Strawbridge and a federal judicial clerkship honors intern to the Honorable Timothy J. Savage, both at the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Nathan earned his law degree, magna cum laude and Order of the Coif, from Temple University Beasley School of Law, where he was a staff editor of the Temple Law Review and a Law & Public Policy Scholar. While in law school, he interned at the Philadelphia District Attorney's Office where he represented the government in criminal preliminary hearings and trials in Philadelphia Municipal Court, and in the Office of Philadelphia City Councilmember Derek Green where he analyzed and drafted legislation and performed policy research. Nathan was also a legal intern at the U.S. Department of Justice, Civil Division.

Nathan earned his bachelor's degrees, cum laude, from the Pennsylvania State University Schreyer Honors College. He previously worked at a Harrisburg-based government relations firm and on various political campaigns.

Experience

Defeated a motion for a status quo order seeking reinstatement of an LLC manager in the Delaware Court of Chancery on behalf of a real estate investment fund in a dispute with a joint venture partner.
