

Arbitration Compelled Based on Unsigned Fee Agreement

Tuesday, July 18, 2023

Jason Domark was quoted in an American Bar Association Litigation Section article discussing Zimmerman v. Sherman and the additional steps the law firm could have taken to potentially avoid enforcement litigation. “Lawyers always need to remember that they need to get engagement letters and that they need to get them back. If they had a signed agreement here, that would have resolved a lot of these issues,” said Jason.

To read the full article, click here. (Subscription Required)

Related Practice Areas

- Commercial Litigation