

Community crusader

Friday, June 5, 2020

The Loyola School of Law ran an alumni profile of Jim Argionis recognizing his dedication to his practice and community and highlighting some of the community accolades his efforts have garnered. “It’s always been in my blood to help those around me,” he says. “Whether you start with your family, or you start with your block, or you start with your neighborhood—it goes from there.”

To read the full story, click here.

Related Practice Areas

- Commercial Litigation